

I strongly do not feel one company should be able to own so much of the media. There would be no true news if half of every type of media were owned by one company, that company would be in control of our entire nation by what they chose to publize and what they chose not to.